WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 29.

Gen. Lee's Statue.

The Lee Monument Association yesterday awarded the contract for an equestrian statue of Gen. Robert E. Lee. The board of managers is composed of Gov. Lee, Treasurer Harmon, Col. Archer Anderson, Miss Sarah Randolph, Miss Elizabeth Nicholas and Auditor Marye. All were present except the latter. They were in session | rearly all day, and awarded the work to Mercie, of Paris. The association advertised for models, offering a premium of $2,000 for the best, $1,000 for the next and an honorable mention for the third, but with-out committing themselves as to giving the work to any particular sculptor, even if his model was declared the best. Mercie was one of those who competed, and who is finally successful. He recently sent a statue of a horse, which Major Doswell, the well-known Virginia turfman, pronounced the best status of a horse he ever saw. This best statue of a horse he ever saw. This horse is a typical Virginia thoroughbred, standing in perfect repose. Upon such a horse the Lee Monument Association now wants Monsieur Mercie to place the figure of Gen. Robert E. Lee. Of the models before the committee of the association, that of Neihaus, of Cincinnati, won the premium of $2,000, and that of Ezekiel, of Rome, the second premium. The committee, however, which made these awards spoke very highly of Mercie's model, but did not like the horse. Lieutenant Gaudens, the sculptor of the state of Abraham Lincoln, was one of the committee that made the award at that time. The action of the board is final, and settles a matter that has been the subject of much discussion, many Virginians insisting that the statue of Lee should be the work of Valentine, the Virginia sculptor. A member of the association said yesterday afternoon: "As there has been some newspaper talk in reference to the association giving this work to Mr. Valentine, of Richmond, it is due to the ladies' association, and those who had that matter in charge, to say that Mr. Valentine was the first one written to by them to compete for this monument, but he declined to do so." The Governor was asked yesterday afternoon when work upon the monument would be commenced, and he replied: "The cornerstone will be laid on the 1st day of next October, during the exhibition of the Virginia State Agricultural Society." It has already been decided that the monument is to be erected on the Allan lot, at the head of the Franklin street extension.

Is it Really Consumption?

Many a case supposed to be radical lung disease is really one of liver complaint and indigestion, but, unless that diseased liver can be restored to healthy action, it will so clog the lungs with corrupting matter as to bring on their speedy decay, and then in-deed we have consumption, which is scrofula of the lungs, in its worst form. Nothing can be more happily calculated to nip this danger in the bud than is Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," By druggist.

The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, as
